

I D - D A R - M A L T A

A private invitation to a 'no pressure' holiday re-treat in our Malta family home, hosted by Martine Waltier.

Id-Dar means 'The Home' in Maltese and my intention is to offer our ancient cosy quarters to a small group of women to create a loving, consensual, safe space where stories can be shared, memories made and hearts fuelled.

Merħba - Welcome

A getaway to do whatever you desire, whenever you desire and in a co-created, consensual way.

Yoga/meditation/breathwork will be offered by me (Martine) every morning and then together over breakfast we will feel into our desires of what we would really like to do for the rest of the day - a no schedule, no pressure kind of re-treat.

The idea is that we will be living in harmony with our flow, being true to our needs and being able to express them with support of myself and the group.

I will offer knowledge of my motherland and be available for additional healing practices such as sound/voice healing, breathwork and yoga. The invitation is also there for those who would love to share their specialist modalities or creative skills - we all have so many gifts to share.

Ceremony, loving care and nourishing experiences are at the heart of the space we co-create. Free of judgement, expectations and limitations.

HOW OFTEN DO US WOMEN TRULY GET TO SAY
WHAT WE NEED AND DESIRE IN EACH MOMENT?

IT'S TIME TO FULLY HONOUR OURSELVES

I D - D A R - S I G G I E W I

Our home is really old, like 500+ years old, and full of character. Nestled in my mother's sleepy hometown of Siggiewi, this is a part of Malta that tourists, and even locals, are unfamiliar with.

We have an open courtyard so there is always fresh air (and sun) entering the space and at night the stars watch over us.

I have spent the past year renovating it and it is a work in progress, however, those who have stayed here have been taken by its charm and uniqueness.

There are two bedrooms, which can be shared, providing a total capacity of 4 women plus myself (I have my own little space). There are two bathrooms, a kitchen and even an ancient birthing space, you have to see it to believe it!

It is in the old part of Siggiewi and the bread van comes twice daily, the fish man on a Friday and lots of local market shops nearby. The bus to the capital (Valletta 20 mins) and the beach (Ghar Lapsi 10 mins) is at the end of our road, although I will have my car for us to explore the islands together.

Covid note: Malta is allowing vaccinated people and unvaccinated (with an antigen test) into the country for tourism. For more info about Malta travel regulations click here.

I do not have a strong opinion about the vaccination other than it is one's choice what they decide to do or not do with their body. All are welcome at Id-Dar.

I LOOK FORWARD TO WELCOMING YOU
